

Internship Offer

ABOUT US: 3s works on an integrative perspective combining learning, work and knowledge. We are located in Vienna / Austria, we provide our services to Austrian and European partners and clients. Our working languages are German (in Austria) and English (on European level).

OUR SERVICES: Labour market and occupational research, feasibility studies, international and comparative educational research, classification of competences and occupations, non-formal and informal learning, analysis of training needs, quality in education, transparency tools (EQF, NQF, ECVET), web tools for education and the labour market, education and career guides... – see also <http://www.3s.co.at>

OUR OFFER FOR YOU: International internship placement for a 3-6 months training period (practicum period, additional practical phase, internship, traineeship – to be defined with your specific needs) from October / November 2013.

YOU ARE: A student (master degree programme or higher) or young graduate of a European university in the field of social sciences, management, pedagogy, communication, languages, or any related field.

WORK TASKS: Assisting project work, desk research, data analysis (qualitative and quantitative), drafting research reports, partner and client communication.

YOUR SKILLS: Experience in social research work, methodology of social research, interest in labour market analysis and development, know-how of educational systems and of European programmes related to Vocational Education and Training, Higher Education, Adult Education, English and/or German on high level.

SEND YOUR APPLICATION TO: office@3s.co.at UNTIL SEPTEMBER 15, and you will get more information on the application process.